E N T R Y

The motion to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis [dkt. 187], to the extent it was filed in the criminal case, is denied without prejudice. The defendant is notified that contrary to his assertion in his motion, no financial information was attached to his motion.

In addition, his statement in his motion to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis that “he may also have a claim as established by the Supreme Court ruling in Johnson” was not asserted in this case and will not be considered as presented. Johnson applies to the residual clause of the Armed Career Criminal Act, 18 U.S.C. § 924(e), but if the defendant wishes to assert a Johnson claim, he shall seek leave from the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals for authorization for a second or successive motion to vacate under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

The clerk shall re-docket the motion to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis in the section 2255 case, 2:15-cv-00229-JMS-DKL.
